Summary

Hello, I'm Kodanda Rama Naga Ganesh Pothamsetti.(alias Ram Pothamsetti)

Currently, I'm thriving as a software developer at Frejun, where I specialize in leveraging a diverse set of technologies to craft innovative solutions and contribute to impactful projects. My expertise includes HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React.js, Node.js, PHP, MySQL, and Django, among others.

With a keen passion for learning, I stay updated with the latest trends and advancements in the tech industry. Whether it's exploring new programming languages, diving into emerging technologies, or mastering new frameworks like Docker and FastAPI, I'm always eager to expand my knowledge base.

I am open to new opportunities and connections, and I believe in the power of networking and collaboration. Let's connect and explore how we can mutually benefit from our shared experiences and expertise.

If you're looking for a dedicated and adaptable software developer with expertise in a wide array of technologies who thrives in dynamic environments and is committed to continuous improvement, let's connect!
